

Saturday, August 4, 2007

chefs sunday August 19, 2007 to the Field thinking about food? sustainable, local, organic — how about gourmet?

enjoy a chance to sample some of the best gourmet food in town, watch as the city's top chefs use local organic ingredients freshly harvested and go head to head in competition to win the 'coveted' green cuisine award. by coming out you are helping to support local organic growers.

competing restaurants:

raincity grill
c Restaurant
diva at the met
culinary capers

Aurora Bistro
terminal city restaurant papi's restaurant

food booths open 11am – 2pm the chefs compete 2pm – 4pm children's activities, music, silent auction and more!

food samples cost $3.00 per portion, with all the proceeds being donated to terranova schoolyard society & organic friends of the future. *please bring your own drink cups, cups provided at a cost.

Location:

terranova rural park 2651 westminster highway, richmond bc see website for map and parking details www.myterranova.ca

parking on site is limited so a free shuttle bus service will depart from the city works yard located at 5999 lynas lane every 15 minutes. (see map for location) you are encouraged to park and ride or come by foot or bike

Also involved:

quince
northwest culinary academy vancouver community college glorious organics co-op cooks for hire

terranova
schoolyard society

RICHMOND
Island City, by Nature

the richmond
REVIEW

